

Elementary Principals Council – 4/21/16

“The findings show that schools’ abilities to improve and sustain effectiveness over the long haul are not primarily the result of the principal’s leadership style but of their understanding and diagnosis of the school’s needs and their application of clearly articulated, organizationally shared educational values through multiple combinations and accumulations of time and context-sensitive strategies that are ‘layered’ and progressively embedded in the school’s work, culture, and achievements” (Day, Gu, & Sammons, 2016).
