DIGNITY

The goal of the Dignity Act is to create a safe and supportive school climate where students can learn and focus, rather than fear being discriminated against, intimidated, taunted, harassed or bullied.

FOR

The Dignity Act came into effect on July 1, 2012 and states:

A

“The Dignity Act prohibits acts of harassment and bullying, including cyberbullying and/or discrimination, by employees or students on school property or at a school function, including but not limited to such conduct those based on a student’s actual or perceived race, color, weight, national origin, ethnic group, religion, religious practice, disability, sexual orientation, gender (defined to include gender identity and expression), or sex.”

Education Law 11[8]

What You Need To Know:

Under The Dignity Act, ALL students are protected from discrimination/bullying by other students and school personnel while:

- On school property (school buildings, athletic fields, playgrounds, parking lots, etc.)
- On a school bus/vehicle
- At any school-sponsored event or activity (field trip, athletic event, etc.)

In 2013, The Dignity Act expanded to include cyberbullying (defined as “any harassment or bullying that occurs through any form of electronic communication.”)

Schools are required to respond to cyberbullying that:

- Happens on school property or at a school function
- Happens off school property but creates a substantial disruption to the learning environment or when the threats, intimidation, or abuse impact (or could impact) the school environment

Who Can Make a Report?

Any person who experiences, witnesses, or is told about bullying/discrimination can make a report. Including:

- Students
- Parents/Caregivers
- Community Members

*Note: School employees are required to report any bullying/discrimination they witness or are told about.

How Do I Make a Report?

You can make a report by filling out the Dignity Act Reporting Form available on the TST BOCES website (www.tstboces.org) and in all TST BOCES programs, or by telling a Dignity Act Coordinator (information located on the back of this brochure) or TST BOCES staff member.

What Happens After I Make a Report?

The report will be shared with the appropriate Dignity Act Coordinator who will promptly and thoroughly investigate the matter, and take actions to stop the bullying/harassment from continuing.
